

Deborah Bowles (Perry)

About Deborah

Deborah was born in Ingomar, Shelburne County, but lived in Barrie, Ontario for the majority of her adult life. She returned home a few years ago and now resides in Shelburne. A talented painter, she enjoys portraying realism in her art.

Deborah is a self taught artist, although she was involved with the established Barrie Art Club for over ten years. She has also attended many workshops and demos. She served on the board in various positions, including President in 1999.

Deborah has experience with and enjoys all painting mediums, but watercolour remains her favorite. She explains her love of watercolour art this way: "I love the cleanness and freshness of it". Deborah's interest in the arts goes beyond the brushes to include music, drama, gardening, quilting and costuming for various plays.
