

Lynne Crowell

About Lynne

Lynne Crowell is a singer and songwriter from River Road. Originally born in Barrington to a musically gifted family, Lynne has been singing for as long as she can remember. Lynne sings everything from country and traditional music, to rock and roll. When it comes to songwriting all her songs are inspired by personal experience.

Lynne started out singing in fundraisers, but went on to play in multiple bands, one being Evergreen. Later, she established Lynne Crowell Enterprise and was inducted into the Nova Scotia Country Music Hall of Fame in 2007. She's also travelled to Nashville. In 2009, friends and the Municipality of Barrington threw her a program of appreciation.

Being accepted and recognized by those in her community has always been enough for Lynne as she views community, volunteering, and family as vitally important. Lynne considers being able to raise her daughter in a peaceful and loving home her greatest personal achievement, and being able to play music for 45 years with her friends, Don Randell and Loran Varner, her greatest career oriented achievement.
