About Rita

Rita Jenkins has lived in Shelburne County all of her life and is proud of her Loyalist heritage. Rita is an accomplished fiber-artist, as her pieces of art have been published in several magazines and have been displayed at art shows from here to New Orleans. She is excited about her love for rug-hooking and sharing her techniques with her students.

Rita also dabbles in painting and loves to show off her hand painted cards. Her hobbies include rug-hooking, painting, needle tatting, and smocking. Rita has been an extra in three movies and in 1983 she was presented to the Prince and Princess of Wales who came to Shelburne for our Bicentennial Celebrations. Lets Give Cancer the Boot was designed by Rita to raise money and create interest in finding a cure for cancer. Rita is a multi-talented member.
